Dear Rachna,

I'm writing this letter to express my enthusiastic appreciation for your speaking, training, and teaching efforts on behalf of Comprehensive Coaching U and its affiliated companies. I have had the opportunity to observe you in both live and teleconference based teaching environments and, to start, let me say "Wow!"

Your skills and capabilities are unique in that you are able to quickly and easily grasp the tone and pulse of the group, and to adapt your information to better serve them on a moment by moment basis. You are incredibly intelligent, with a strongly developed capacity to take complex information and make it easier to understand. You are skilled in speaking to the level beneath the question- helping foster insight and growth in each of your programs. Participants have given you extremely positive reviews, and I'm continually informed of how powerful and life-changing your speaking/training is. As you know, I've even asked you to train in my stead, which is the highest compliment I can give.

Your contributions to the community have been well-received and you have, truly "made a difference". I am thrilled about our ongoing association and can offer you my highest recommendation for any future opportunity related to speaking/training others.

Sincerely,
